Welcome to Family Court

- While you are not required to have a lawyer to file papers or participate in a family court case, it is recommended that you do so. You have the right to represent yourself, however, you may wish to consider how important this case is to you before making that decision.
- If you decide not to obtain a lawyer, the Court's Self-Help program may be of assistance to you.
- Before you decide whether to use the services of the Self-Help program, it is important to understand that the staff of the Self-Help program are not acting as your lawyer or providing legal advice to you.

Self-Help Staff:

CAN

- Provide information about available low cost or free legal services programs or other community services.
- Provide information about approved forms and packets.
- Provide citations of statutes or rules.
- Provide general information about court process, practice or procedure.
- Provide information about local rules, local court practices or Administrative Orders.
- Facilitate the setting of hearings.

CANNOT

- Provide legal advice or recommended a specific course of action.
- Provide interpretation of legal terminology, statutes, rules, orders, cases or the constitution.
- Provide confidential information.
- Encourage or discourage litigation.
- Record information on a form.
