Volusia County Court Judge David A. Cromartie formally sworn into office Friday

DAYTONA BEACH - Volusia County Court Judge David A. Cromartie will be formally sworn into office at 4 p.m. on Friday, at the Museum of Arts and Sciences, 352 S. Nova Rd., Daytona Beach.

This is a public, judicial proceeding and the county court judges will be sitting en banc, meaning with the full court participating. The media is invited to attend.

Judge Cromartie was appointed on Feb. 9 by Gov. Rick Scott to the vacancy created by the retirement of Judge Shirley Green. He began work on Feb. 21, presiding in a civil division at the Volusia County Courthouse Annex at City Island in Daytona Beach.

A Florida native and alumnus of Seabreeze High School, he received both his bachelor's and law degrees from the University of Florida. An attorney since 1998, he spent much of his legal career with the Office of the State Attorney in the Seventh Judicial Circuit. He handed misdemeanor and felony cases, worked on the career criminal unit and then served for five years as managing assistant state attorney for the juvenile and misdemeanor divisions in Daytona Beach. He also worked in private practice for seven years, handling criminal, family, personal injury and civil cases.
