MEDIA ADVISORY

Volusia County Drug Court participants to graduate from etiquette course July 2

WHO: Participants in the Volusia County Drug Court Program

WHAT: Will graduate from a five-week etiquette course

WHEN: 5:30 p.m., Monday, July 2

WHERE: Stewart-Marchman-Act Behavioral Healthcare Dr. Ernest Cantley Center, 702 S. Ridgewood Ave., Daytona Beach.

WHY: Participants in the Volusia County Drug Court program have been participating in a five-week etiquette course. The course included instruction on skills such as body language, active listening, interviewing and handling conflict in the workplace. This etiquette instruction was offered to select participants as a different way to introduce certain skills participants can use to obtain employment while also improving their everyday social interactions. Course completion will count toward the participants' Drug Court program requirements. Other requirements include random urinalysis, office visits, court appearances and substance abuse counseling.
