Volusia County DUI Court to host graduation ceremony Thursday

WHO: Volusia County DUI Court Program

WHAT: Will celebrate the success of five participants during a graduation ceremony, which will include remarks from Daytona Beach Mayor Derrick L. Henry

WHEN: 3:30 p.m., Thursday, March 14

WHERE: Courtroom 4, Volusia County Courthouse Annex at City Island, 125 E. Orange Ave., Daytona Beach

WHY: The Volusia County DUI Court program began in spring 2012 under the direction of Volusia County Court Judge Belle B. Schumann. Using the Drug Court model, the DUI Court combines judicial intervention with random urinalysis, counseling sessions and treatment. The program is aimed at chronic or severe abusers who are repeat offenders or first-time offenders who had a high blood alcohol level at the time of arrest or who are young in age. This program is federally-funded through a grant administered by the Florida Department of Transportation's State Safety Office.
