Seventh Judicial Circuit to gain one new circuit judge, qualifying begins July 17

Daytona Beach - The Seventh Judicial Circuit – which includes Flagler, Putnam, St. Johns and Volusia counties - will receive one of 55 new county and circuit judges approved by the Legislature during the 2006 session.

The qualifying period for the new circuit judgeship begins at noon Monday, July 17, and ends at noon Friday, July 21. Candidates will be placed on the Sept. 5 ballot. The successful candidate will take office Jan. 2, 2007. He or she will begin their service in St. Johns County with a family/juvenile docket.

Additional information about the election is available through the Florida Division of Elections.
