MEDIA ADVISORY

Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Peggy A. Quince to visit Daytona Beach May 11, participate in Statewide Drug Court Graduation

WHO: Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Peggy A. Quince

WHAT: Will speak during the 11th Annual Statewide Drug Court Graduation

WHEN: 2 p.m., Tuesday, May 11

WHERE: Willie Miller Instructional Center, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University

WHY: In honor of National Drug Court Month, Florida drug courts annually host a graduation that brings together participants statewide. This year, Chief Justice Quince will speak during the statewide videocast originating from Daytona Beach. Also addressing the graduates will be Bruce Grant, director of the Florida Office of Drug Control Policy. Judges and graduates from drug court programs in Flagler, Putnam and St. Johns counties will be participating as well. Following the statewide ceremony, the Volusia County Adult and Family Drug Court programs will celebrate the graduation of 17 participants.
